

Judy Sunasky

Consultant, Business and Leadership Coach

Judy is a business and leadership coach with over 25 years of experience. She is the former Managing Director of Blendwell Chemicals (Pty) Ltd, an industrial-cleaning chemical manufacturer based in South Africa that supplied resellers, wholesalers, and contract cleaners with high-quality cleaning chemicals. After 15 years with the company, Judy purchased the business from her father and continued building the company, before selling Blendwell Chemicals (Pty) Ltd in 2020.

Since selling her business, Judy actively consults with cleaning product manufacturers and provides business and leadership coaching services to clients. She has completed coursework for the University of Cape Town's Executive and Management Coaching Program, The Institute of Directors South Africa "Being a Director" training program (part 1-5), and Harvard Business School Executive Education Program (Harvard Manage Mentor).

She serves as the Johannesburg II Chapter Chair for the Women Presidents Organization, where she has been an active member since 2017. Judy was a member of EY's Winning Women (Class of 2017) and was the recipient of the IWEC (International Women's Entrepreneurial Challenge) award in 2020.
