

Roz L. Alford

Consultant and Retired Principal, ASAP Solutions Group, LLC

Roz received a Bachelor of Science from the Johann Wolfgang von Goethe Institute in Frankfurt, Germany, and the University of Chicago. In 1989, Roz founded ASAP Solutions Group, LLC, an IT Professional Services company servicing fortune 100 companies. Roz sold her company and retired in 2016.

In March 2011, Roz was appointed to the National Women's Business Council for a three-year term. The NWBC is a bi-partisan federal advisory council created to serve as an independent source of advice and policy recommendations to the President, Congress, and the U.S. Small Business Administration on economic issues of importance to women business owners.

In addition to her multiple business memberships, Roz is very community minded and promotes philanthropic endeavors. She has served as Chair, Vice Chair, Executive Director, Executive Committee Member, and Board Director of the following organizations: Women Presidents Organization (20 +years), Committee of 200, Women Impacting Public Policy, American Red Cross, Junior Achievement, United Way and Go for the Greens.

She is a current member and supports the following organizations:

Committee of 200, Women Presidents Organization (Chapter Chair of Harrisburg, PA and Broward/West Palm, FL), Women Impacting Public Policy, American Red Cross, United Way, The Partnership Against Domestic Violence, WBENC, Junior Achievement, and Go for the Greens.