

Francis Brown

Partner and Strategic Advisor, Brown Advisory

Francis is a partner and strategic advisor at Brown Advisory. He has dedicated his practice to working with business owners and families of wealth with complex financial planning needs by seeking to provide a deeper level of service for his clients, going beyond investment management and traditional retirement planning to focus on advanced planning areas that include wealth transfer, wealth enhancement, risk management, tax mitigation, and philanthropy as well as personal development and family wealth planning.

Prior to Brown Advisory, he lived in Denver, Colorado, and worked with a national bank as a Director of Family Wealth Consulting and a boutique estate planning law firm where his practice included working in a similar role traveling to various markets in the Rocky Mountain and Pacific Northwest regions.
