

Necole Parker, FMP

CEO and Founder, The ELOCEN Group

Necole Parker Green is the CEO and Founder of The ELOCEN Group, LLC, a Program & Project Management provider of the built environment, committed to improving the quality of lives within our communities. Since forming ELOCEN in 2007, Necole has expertly managed/overseen project lifecycles from start to finish, comprised primarily of new construction and renovation projects within government and commercial sector markets. This has resulted in securing numerous notable clients, growing the company in both scale and capacity, and achieving significant revenue gains.

With over 20 years of comprehensive Program & Project Management experience, Necole continues to build synergistic relationships that create value for each of ELOCEN's respected customers. Professional excellence, integrity, and a willingness to go the extra mile every time defines who she is.

Necole holds several Board positions including: Virginia Union University (Board Trustee), SHABACH! Ministries, Inc., Walker's Legacy, Capital Region Minority Supplier Development Council (CRMSDC), DC Chamber of Commerce, and The ELOCEN Group Foundation (Chair). Additionally, she has memberships in various professional organizations and is the recipient of numerous industry awards and recognitions.

Understanding the importance of community involvement, Necole seeks to enrich the lives of others through her non-profit, The ELOCEN Group Foundation, which serves as an advocacy framework for teen mothers and African- American males raised in single-parent households.

Necole earned a Bachelor of Science Degree in Business Administration from Virginia Union University and has received certificates from the Tuck School of Business at Dartmouth's Building A High-Performing Business Program (2014) and Tuck- WBENC Executive Program (2013).
