

Moira Buckley

Territory Vice President, Western Territory Prudential Advisors

Moira Buckley has a strong desire to positively impact the lives of others, develop individuals and teams to achieve high levels of success and create change that drives enterprise growth. Moira joined Prudential upon graduating from college, and she feels lucky to have entered a career that has allowed her to do all of these things. Moira began her career as a financial advisor and recruiter.

With over 25 years of progressively responsible experience, Moira's journey has included roles in sales or customer-facing positions, project management, strategy, and senior-level leadership. She has been an influential voice in developing financial planning capability throughout the organization, social media engagement within Prudential Advisors and the financial services industry and attracting and developing quality talent that will better serve Prudential's mission of expanding access to investing, insurance and retirement security.

In her current role as Territory Vice President for the Western United States, she is responsible for the coordination and implementation of strategic planning and direction for 9 Firms in 21 States. Moira is an executive sponsor for the Retail Advice and Solutions Women's Program she established in 2018.

She actively volunteers for Project Lemonade, a foster youth organization in Portland, Oregon, and is a former board member of SIDS of Oregon and Oregon Episcopal School. Moira holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Criminology from Southern Oregon University. She and her husband Mike have three children, Piper, Lily, and Jack.

Moira will be introducing:

Ellen Leikind, CEO and Founder, PokerDivas