

Kim Folsom

Founder and CEO, Founders First Capital Partners Inc.

Kim Folsom is the Founder and CEO of Founders First Capital Partners Inc., (FFCP) a private provider of growth funding for service-based businesses and the only black and women-led, revenue-based venture platform.

FFCP is focused on partnering with small businesses in underserved communities. She is also the founder of Founders First CDC, a not-for-profit, community development organization and micro-small business accelerator with a mission to help underserved and underrepresented small business owners.

As a social entrepreneur, Kim is dedicated to leveraging the power of market forces and sound business practices to address disparities in revenue and job growth among businesses led by underrepresented founders.
