

Mtani Holiday

Vice President, Group Insurance Internal Controls Prudential Financial

Mtani Holiday has been in the Insurance and Financial Services industry for over 20 years with over 15 years in leadership positions. Her specialty is integrating compliance and risk management practices within organizations while focusing on developing viable solutions by connecting control functions and business partners. The result is expedited decision making, improved dialogue, and greater process efficiencies.

Mtani's expertise is in developing and implementing documentation strategies, addressing audit and risk management issues, creating inclusive teams, as well as creating greater awareness and focus on compliance challenges. Mtani's focus on collaboration, partnership, creating an inclusive culture, and engaging talent to ensure diverse perspectives are heard have been instrumental in ensuring her teams are successful and the solutions are sustainable.

Mtani graduated from Virginia State University with a Bachelor of Science degree in Hotel/Restaurant Management. She also played college volleyball and has a team mindset because "Diversity of thought and skills yield the greatest outcomes". She also holds a Master of Public Administration (MPA) from Rutgers University in Newark, NJ. She is a member of the CALIBR Global Leadership Network and Prudential's Black Leadership business resource group. Mtani is known to be a mentor and continuous learner.

Mtani lives in Florida with her father and continues to maintain strong ties in New Jersey. She is an avid traveler who enjoys experiencing new cultures and has traveled to over 48 US states and over 15 countries internationally.